DEDICATION

George Young

By the end of the first week of school we knew he had found the magic formula for keeping rules and regulations and yet creating a relaxed, easygoing, friendly, caring atmosphere. Maybe it's tough to be "The Man" and still be everybody's Great Guy, to be friends with the students and yet earn their unquestioning respect and honor, but somehow George Young makes it look easy. The communication lines are up, the old enmities are gone, and we all wonder why life wasn't this great all along. You have our undying respect, Mr. Young, and to you — in the first year of Greenhill's third decade — we dedicate the 1971 Cavalcade.

HEADMASTER

Bernard L. Fulton

CHARGE TO THE CLASS OF 1971

I charge the class of 1971 to determine here and now to take your places as leaders in your own worlds however big, however small. Stand firm in your own sense of right. It makes no difference how many facts gleaned from books you may forget your values remain with you subconsciously and I trust you to reflect the moral stamina which you have acquired in your home and school environments. Lead men, because you know that you are right and your Alma Mater will reflect your glory.

Tony Bangs

Hey, Bangs, want to eat? . . . Sure, Number 49, coming up . . . very quiet, dependable both in the classroom and on the field, in a way that shows up on report cards and on scoreboards . . . seen either with a basketball or with Sarah . . . a fighting spirit that never quits . . . Hey, change the channel, Paladin's on! . . . that's Tony!

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT: Tony didn't have a legacy to leave, so we will do his part and leave his conversational abilities to Ches Cochran.

Fred Bonte

Easy, boys! Whoo, whoo! Thar she blows, mates! . . . two tacos, three burritos and a waitress. Fred Bonte and his famous grin, his super VW, his high batting average, and his itch. We're all going to miss Fred at Greenh'll next year, and we all hope for him the best of luck in his future years.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT: I, Fred Bonte, leave to Ken Mosesman a waterproof rubber glove for his throwing arm.

Gary Brown

Gary Brown is a unique figure in our Senior class. He enjoys spending his afternoons playing the piano or watching Doris Day movies. He can't write or speak without humorous remarks. Wherever he goes he'll add spice.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT: To John Cookston I leave in the best of health the best of hands, mine, and also the ability to be able to play every classical piece he could ever want to hear.

Roger Charlebois

Charleyboy, an institution in the hallowed halls of Greenhill, always seen napping in the foyer of the science building. A stout antagonist of the fabled "coat-and tie rule." Always a nose in student activities both during the week and on "weekends." There will always be a spot missing here at Greenhill when he moves on, especially when they tear his records out of the file and throw them away.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT: I, Roger Charlebois, leave to Ken Moselman a can of FDS, and to Bob Lane and his talking dummy, Mouth Cochran, a night on the Ed Sullivan Show.

Fair daffodils, we weep to see
You haste away so soon;
As yet the early-rising sun
Has not attained his noon.
Stay, stay,
Until the hasting day
Has seen
But to the evensong:
And, having prayed together, we
Will go with you along.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT: I, Julie Faulkner, leave to Bobby Tucker my desert boots, to Mr. Hartman a gold kangaroo pin, and to John Fulton my aboriginal drawl.

Mr. Scholarship . . . 1965 Ford Galaxie . . . says what he means . . . his briefcase is bound to become a doctor's bag . . . a great guy . . .

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT: I, Jack Field, being of questionably sound mind, leave my unique annual-producing ability to the 1972 staff and my various other talents to the next football manager.

Jerry Freeman

Somewhere — and where better than here? — we should laud Jerry's one act of school spirit: he bought a class ring for his girlfriend. Jerry leaves behind him a distinguished career — the only boy to audit five years of math, the most skillful at "skipping" in the middle of the day because he drove so many cars no one ever knew which one he was in.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT: To Mrs. Young I leave the three detentions for skipping which I never served, and to Mr. Heath I leave the forged note he found out about and all the others he didn't.

Destined to follow his own course, searching for a personal reality of truth and freedom, he has opened eyes to a vision which penetrates the superficial. Never straying from his own beliefs, with one hand open to his friends, the other straining to grip his answer . . .

Bryan Galt

Bryan's unique philosophy of telling exactly how he feels about a particular person or event has won him the respect of many people. Bryan does not try to hide his feelings behind some mask but instead voices them openly. One cannot help but admire a person who has the courage to do this, for in our world true feelings are seldom if ever expressed.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT: I, Bryan Galt, being of sound mind and body, leave Mr. Gonzales one Goff Burger and all my dirty jokes.

Roy Gilliland

Roy came to us in 8th grade with pretty well-formed opinions and now he leaves us with educated opinions. Usually found near John Fulton or the like, wheeling and dealing with booking agencies, frequent weekend ventures to Houston, listening deeply to rock and roll, thinking what the future holds, and trying to figure out last night's calculus, all seem to take much of his time.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT: I, Roy Gilliland, leave to Jay Moody my way with the girls in his neighborhood, to Ches Cochran a bowling ball for his oral cavity, and to Mr. Young my thanks and deepest respect.

May all the stars hang bright above her dwelling
 Silent as though they watched the sleeping earth!
 With light heart may she rise, gay fancy, cheerful eyes
 Joy lift her spirit, joy attune her voice;
 To her may all things live from pole to pole,
 Their life the eddying of her living soul!
 O simple spirit, guided from above,
 Dear Lady! friend devoutest of my choice
 Thus mayest thou ever, evermore rejoice. —Coleridge.

Bryant, although quiet and unnoticed, can be found easily on the football field streaking down the sideline with an intercepted pass under wing, or burning up the basketball court with his lightning-fast MOVES. ## Chris Iverson

If one word were used to describe Chris, that word would be "Cheerful." Chris's constant smile and ready willingness to help others have helped make him one of the most popular people in the senior class. Whenever one was faced with a tough situation, he could always count on Chris to offer the right solution. Friendly towards all, Chris is sure to go a long way in his future life.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT: I, Chris Iverson, hereby bequeath my physique to the football linemen for those extra hard hits.

Steve Levin

Steve participated greatly in his years at Greenhill. He was on the Golf Team, so he could skip sports, and tried to start a school (auto) racing team. Although he is only at school half a day since he goes to typing (WINE TASTING) at noon, while here his presence has been most notable — to Mr. Young, Mr. Thornton, and Mr. Fulton. We're sure the school will be sorry to see him leave.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT: I leave all my hair "discussions" to Jon Wayne, and an empty bottle of Spanish wine to Mr. Gonzales, from my wine-tasting course; and to the administration I leave — at 12:10.

THE 1970 SEASON

The 1970 football season was actually two seasons for the Hornets. The opening game against Fort Worth Christian at home was a defensive struggle which saw the Cardinals score the winning touchdown with twenty-seven seconds left on the clock to win 6-0.

The St. Stephen's game proved to be a disaster for the Hornets. Several key players were injured in the first half and Greenhill played much of the second half with eight starters out of the game. The clock finally stopped the scoring as St. Stephen's won 73-0.

The next week still recovering from injuries in the St. Stephen's game, Greenhill turned in a creditable game, but lost to a good Crandall team 34-0.

The following week was an off week for Greenhill, giving the team a chance to heal some wounds and prepare for Trinity Valley, which the Hornets defeated 20-2. It was in this game that the Hornets began to turn the season around. Cody McCutchin, Bryant Harrison, and Kenny Mosesman had outstanding offensive games, while Roger Charlebois, Ricky Hilton, and Mike Maltese led the defense.

Against Custer, the Hornets had their best game, both offensively and defensively, as they beat the Hawks 42-6. Again, McCutchin, Mosesman, and Harrison had good offensive games as Jeff Miller, Ken Cowens, Tony Bangs, along with Hilton and Charlebois had strong defensive efforts.

The next week the Hornets lost a close one to a strong Howe team, 4-18, although they played well both offensively and defensively. McCutchin, Mosesman, Bangs led the offense, while Miller, Hilton, Charlebois, and Cowens again braced the defense.

Greenhill beat Sacred Heart 20-0 in a good team effort which again featured the offensive efforts of McCutchin, Bangs, and Mosesman and the defensive play of Hilton, Miller, Bangs, and Maltese.

The Fort Worth Country Day game was a heartbreaker. The Hornets lost 7-6, although the defensive effort led by Bangs, Prichard, Charlebois, Miller, Cowens, Hilton, and Maltese was superb. Harrison and Mosesman had one of their better nights offensively.

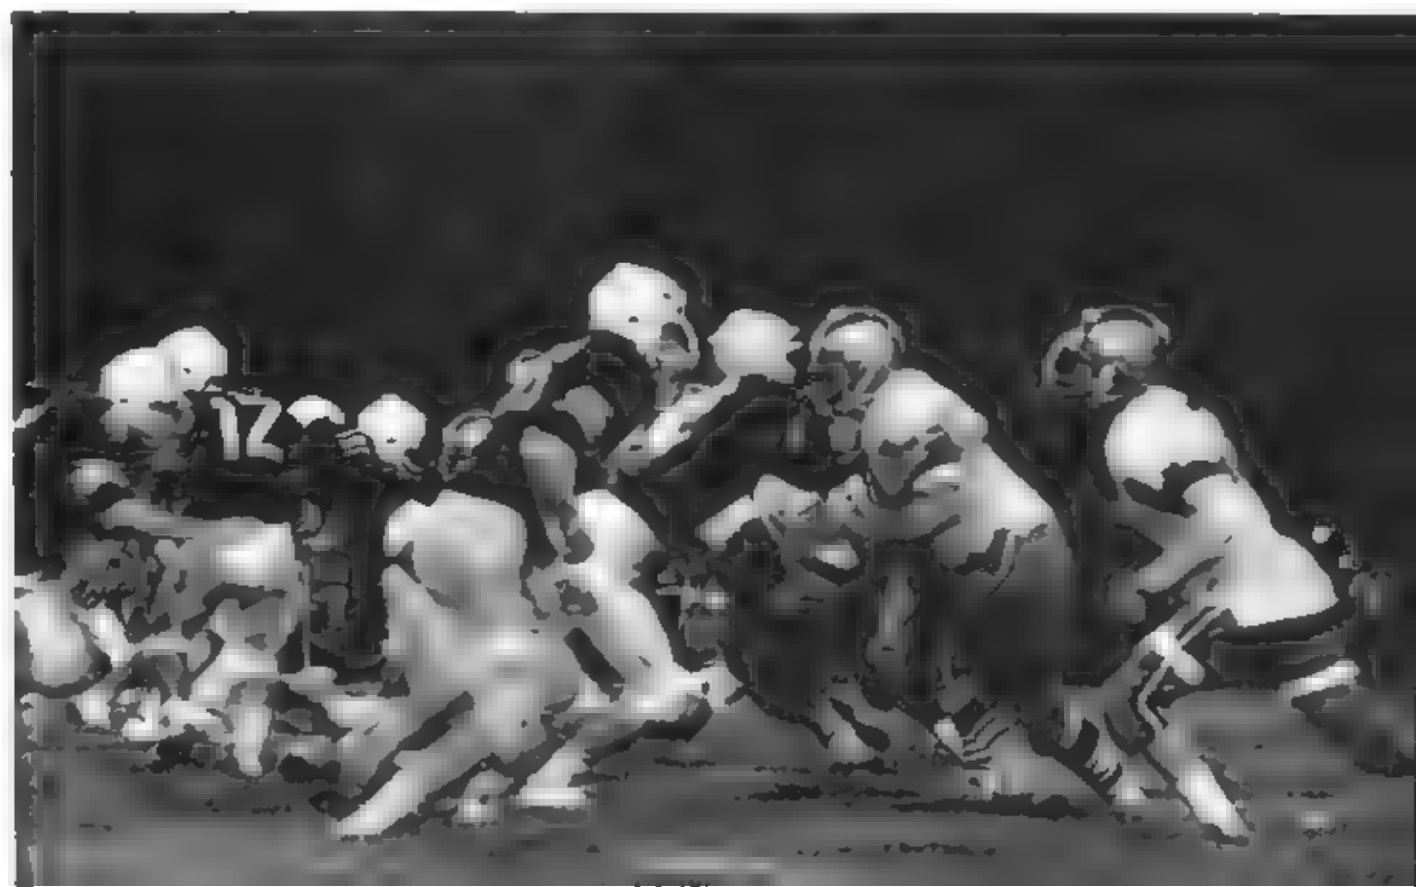

Greenhill lost to Dallas Christian 35-8 in a game which was deceptive. Three key fumbles deep in their own territory got Greenhill into a hole from which it could not recover. But the team played well in ending a season which was characterized by both joy and heartbreak.

JUNIOR VARSITY FOOTBALL

The Junior Varsity had another one of those fair-to-cloudy seasons with a tendency toward one-sided scores. Under the direction of head coach Joe Gonzales, the team was consistently hard-hitting and high-spirited. Though overmatched in size and manpower the J.V.'s determination led them to an enthusiastic 3-4-0 season.

"We don't have to win to have fun!" was the team's attitude: ' You learn a lot, particularly in the slaughter games ' — of which there were many.

But by the end of next year the pro scouts will be on their knees begging for the future of the bloodthirsty Greenhill Junior Varsity.

THE 1971 SEASON

Greenhill won its first TISC basketball championship in the 1970-71 season. The Hornets earned the title by swarming arch-rival Dallas Christian 66-56 in the final conference contest. Early in the season, the Hornets also won the Consolation Bracket of the Crandall Tournament. The Green and Gold ended the year with a 9-3 record, showing great balance throughout the season.

Kevin Cowens, Greenhill's only sophomore letterman, helped the team at guard position. His quickness on defense and good shooting eye enabled him to contribute significantly to the team effort in several games. Kevin came off the bench against Ft. Worth Country Day in a losing cause to add nine points to the Greenhill score.

Martin McCord, a junior who played the low post position, led the team in field goal percentage, 44.3%, and was the second leading rebounder. Martin scored consistently, averaging 8.6 points per game. He contributed 22 points and 8 rebounds in the crucial 72-65 SPC victory over Trinity Valley. Martin, one of three returning lettermen, shows great promise for the 1971-72 season.

Mark Race, a junior letterman, was second in both field goal, 41.7%, and free throw, 59.5%, percentages. At his high post position, Mark was one of the surest shots on the team. He threw in 10 points in the first quarter against Trinity Valley in the TISC victory to give Greenhill a lead which they never relinquished. Mark will return with McCord to give the Hornets a solid inside foundation for the coming season.

Bryant Harrison, a starring guard for the past three years, led the team in assists and was primarily responsible for breaking the opponents' presses throughout the year. Bryant's quickness on defense earned him Honorable Mention All-Conference honors in the Texas Independent Schools Conference (TISC). He had two particularly impressive games, one against Wichita College when he contributed 11 points and 8 rebounds, and the other in the victory over Dallas Christian when he scored 12 points. The Hornets will miss Bryant's fine ball-handling and outstanding defensive capabilities next year.

Jeff Miller, senior guard, added a great deal of hustle and determination to the Hornets' drive to the championship. Jeff was a sure ball handler and one of the important cogs in the Greenhill press. One of his best games came against Royce City in the consolation finals of the Crandall Tournament, when he had 8 points in the 50-44 victory.

David Prichard, senior forward and low post, became the team's second leading scorer for the year, averaging 9.2 points per game. Prichard's hustle made up for a lack of height at a forward position. His six feet, one-half-inch frame did not prevent him from being one of Greenhill's most aggressive rebounders and inside scorers. David broke the first Ft. Worth Christian game open with 20 points, twelve of which came in the final quarter, and 10 rebounds. He also added 4 points and 1 rebound in the victory over Dallas Christian. David was awarded Honorable Mention on the TISC All-Conference team.

Bobby Tucker, senior co-captain, also a three-year starter, played guard and forward as he was needed. He led the team in free throw percentage, 64.2%, and was second in assists. From his guard position, Bobby netted 6 rebounds per game. He was elected to a second team All-Conference position in the TISC. Bobby had two fine games against Dallas Christian (11 points and 6 points). He also added 6 points in the first Trinity Valley victory, including six consecutive clutch free throws in the final quarter.

Tony Bangs, senior forward, was elected team co-captain for the third straight year. He was also elected to the All-Tournament team at the Crandall Tournament for the second time, and was awarded All-Conference first team honors in the TISC for the third consecutive year. Tony was the team's leading rebounder, 8.7, and also was first in steals and points per game, 14.0. He led the team in scoring in 9 of 30 games, hitting 20 points or more in 6 of these contests. His season high came against Ft. Worth Country Day when he netted 31 points and gathered in 17 rebounds. Tony's consistency and overall leadership will be sorely missed by the 71-72 Hornets.

The five seniors who end their high school basketball efforts with a TISC championship will certainly be hard to replace next year. Three of these boys — Tony Bangs, Bryant Harrison, and Bobby Tucker — have worked hard for three years to build Greenhill's team to its present championship level. The other two boys — Jeff Miller and David Prichard — certainly contributed a great deal toward winning the basketball title this year. All five boys deserve praise and respect; they have worked well and accomplished much. Those who remain, both lettermen and squadmen, look forward to an even bigger season next year. But we all join in saying thank you to our seniors, and we wish you the best of luck.

The 2-15-2 record of the Soccer team does not appear impressive. But the play of the team, especially in its improvement, is impressive. Starting the season with experienced players at only four positions, the Hornets played well and improved as the season progressed. The team played a number of close games which could have gone either way but simply could not muster enough offensive thrust to win. The 15 losses include a 2-3 loss to St. Mark's, a 0-1 loss to Cistercian, a 3-4 loss to Jesuit, a 1-2 loss to T.M.I. and a 1-2 loss to Holland Hall.

Roger Charlebois, Doug Greene, George Watson, and John Conwell were standouts on defense. David Bruton, Doug Johnson, Cody McCutchin, and Chris Iverson led the offense. High scorers for the Hornets were Bruton with seven goals and McCutchin with six goals.

THE PENALTY OF

*I*n every field of human endeavor, he that is first must perpetually live in the white light of publicity. Whether the leadership be vested in a man or in a manufactured product, emulation and envy are ever at work. In art, in literature, in music, in industry, the reward and the punishment are always the same. The reward is widespread recognition; the punishment, fierce denial and detraction. When a man's work becomes a standard for the whole world, it also becomes a target for the shafts of the envious few. If his work be merely mediocre, he will be left severely alone—if he achieve a masterpiece, it will set a million tongues a-wagging. Jealousy does not protrude its forked tongue at the artist who produces a commonplace painting. Whatsoever you write, or paint, or play, or sing, or build, no one will strive to surpass or to slander you, unless your work be stamped with the seal of genius. Long, long after a great work or a good work has been done, those who are disappointed or envious continue to cry out that it cannot be done. Spiteful little voices in the domain of art were raised against our own Whistler as a mountebank, long after the big world had acclaimed him its greatest artistic genius. Multitudes flocked to Bayreuth to worship at the musical shrine of Wagner, while the little group of those whom he had dethroned and displaced argued angrily that he was no musician at all. The little world continued to protest that Fulton could never build a steamboat, while the big world flocked to the river banks to see his boat steam by. The leader is assailed because he is a leader, and the effort to equal him is merely added proof of that leadership. Failing to equal or to excel, the follower seeks to depreciate and to destroy—but only confirms once more the superiority of that which he strives to supplant. There is nothing new in this. It is as old as the world and as old as the human passions—envy, fear, greed, ambition, and the desire to surpass. And it all avails nothing. If the leader truly leads, he remains—the leader. Master-poet, master-painter, master-workman, each in his turn is assailed, and each holds his laurels through the ages. That which is good or great makes itself known, no matter how loud the clamor of denial. That which deserves to live—lives.
